Lebensgeschichte von Blasius „Clay“ Schweitzer

The following info is some history about my Great-Grandfather, Clay Switzer. It has nothing to do with the cache, but if you enjoy local history it is an interesting read.

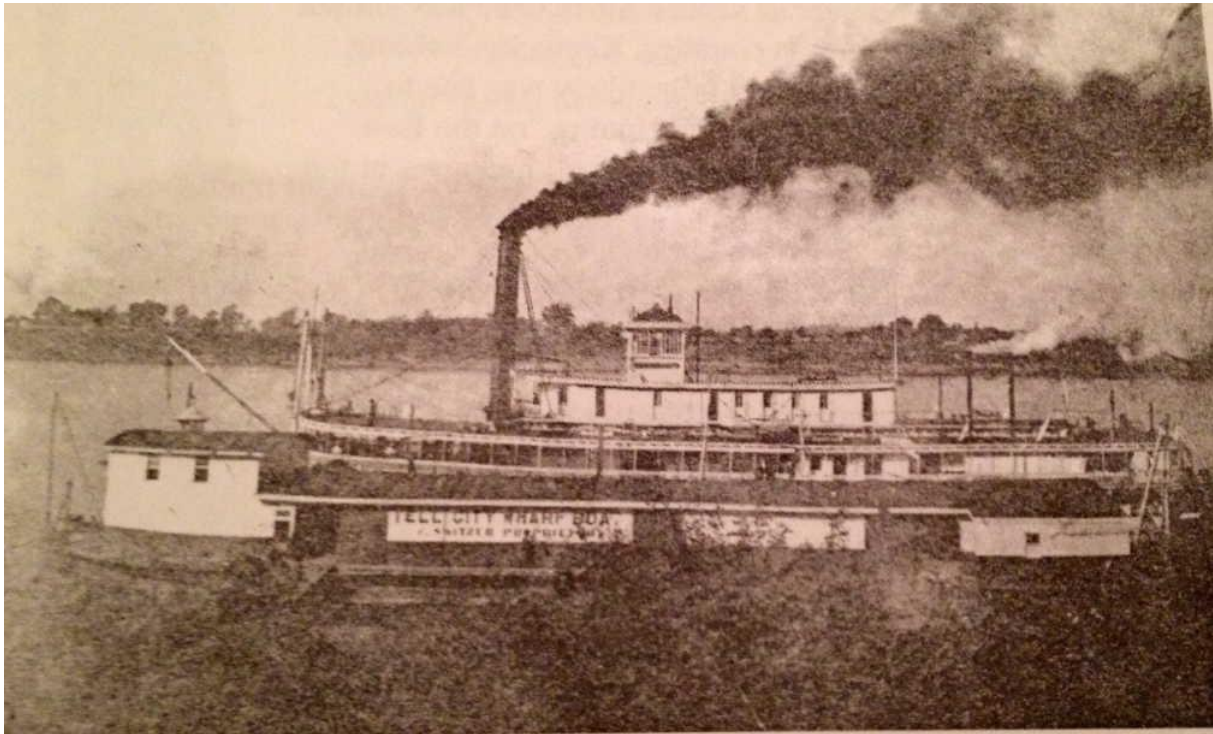

Clay Switzer came to Tell City 8 years before the town was founded, settling on a farm below town. As a young lad he enlisted as a deck hand on an Ohio river boat. He was on the boat that carried Morgan's Raiders over the river at Brandenburg during the Civil War and was on the boat that was fired upon by rebels at Cumberland Gap.

At the time of his death in 1926, his obituary listed him as "one of Tell City's oldest and most prominent citizens." He was a "pioneer and at one time the biggest businessman in Perry County." He knew the Ohio and Mississippi rivers thoroughly, having owned and operated a flatboat carrying lumber south and returning with sugar and molasses. He formed a timber business at Cairo and Shawneetown, IL.

He took on the position of wharfmaster, owning his own wharf boat. The former Tell City News said his wharfboat was "considered one of the largest and best on inland waters."

When river traffic became slack he sold the wharfboat and retired from active river business. For sixteen years he was President of the Tell City National Bank. He was prominently connected with the early industrial life of Tell City and was the leading spirit in the foundation of the Tell City Desk Company and its President for many years.

His old residence is still in use today as Carriage Inn Pizza. The restaurant is situated in the carriage house where his horse and buggy were kept.

²¹²WILL /²¹¹PROBATE - All possessions were left to wife Amalia as executrix. After her death, any remaining assets are to be divided equally among the five children: Corinna, Charles, Stanley, and Albert Switzer and Rose Switzer Brenner. A codicil in Oct 1926 notes for any child with debts which must be paid by the estate, that child's share of the estate shall be reduced. The probate record shows the court authorized purchasing a Switzer-family cemetery monument at a cost of not less than $500. This is surely the monument near the Hwy. 66 entrance gate at St. Mary Catholic Cemetery in Tell City. A story had circulated that the monument was provided in gratitude of the Switzer family donating the land for the cemetery. Research in the land records indicates that the land was sold/donated to the Archbishop of Indianapolis by several persons, none of whom were of the Switzer family. The probate showed wife Amelia was given $101,724 and each of Corinna, Charles, Stanley, Rose, and Albert were given $10,265. [NOTE: The gross amount of the will, $153,049 in 1926, would have the purchasing power of nearly $2 million in Nov 2012 per the Inflation Calculator at the website Calculator.net. By the time his wife died, most of the wealth had dissipated. Too numerous to mention here is the variety of foreign and investments held by Clay at his death.

OTHER EVENTS - (1) An advertisement in 1894 showed Capt. C. Switzer's Black Diamond Coal company had seasoned coal for sale at 8 cents per bushel and unseasoned coal at 6 cents per bushel in Tell City, Perry County, Indiana.²¹³ (2) Per the Tax Roll, Blaze Switzer of Troy was assessed $2.82 for the value @ 6% of coal produced at the mine..²¹⁶ Apr 1866, Troy, Perry County, Indiana.

JOHN RADLEY DEAD.

Pioneer Rosiere Resident Dies In Watertown.

Late last Wednesday night, at the home of his son-in-law, Louis S. Dunlay, in Watertown, occurred the death of John Radley, a well known and highly respected resident of Rosiere, after a long illness.

Mr. Radley, who was 80 years of age, was born in Germany, the son of John and Louise Radley, and at the age of eleven years came to this country and located at Rosiere, where he had resided until about five months ago, when he went to Watertown to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Dunlay. As a young man he purchased a farm near Rosiere, and in the conduct of the same he was very successful.

Mr. Radley was a consistent member of the Catholic church, a man noted for his generous and noble qualifications and won a large circle of friends by his honest and upright dealing with his fellow men.

He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Fred Sheldon, of Cape Vincent, Mrs. James Bailey, of Dexter, and Mrs. L. S. Dunlay and Mrs. Lewis Vautrin, of Watertown.

The remains were brought to Rosiere Saturday morning and the funeral held from St. Vincent de Paul's church at nine o'clock, the Rev. Father Wieand officiating.

Leonard and family left Wyhl in April 1817 for North America along with 18 other families including Barbara's sister Elizabeth (Busch)

The follwing is a transcription of part of the story about these families leaving from the first Wyhl book page 172 (and translations done with babel fish <http://world.altavista.com/tr> and imTranslator http://german.about.com/library/bltransl_01.htm)

Nüchterner aber lautete ein Regierungserlaß vom 4. Jan 1817, wonach diejenigen, so noch Amerika wollen, nicht verkaufen solle, bis selbige die Entlassung (des badischen Staates, d.h. die Staatsbewilligung) haben. Auch solle der Vogt Sorge tragen und die nötigen Maßregeln treffen, daß ordentliche Schuldentilgung mit jedem Auswanderer geschehe bei Strafe eigener Verantwortlichkeit.

Mit Staatserlaubnis gingen zunächst im April des Jahres 1817 folgende Einwohner nach Nordamerika (eingeklammerte Zahl hinter Namen siehe Suchzahl im Sippenbuch): (list below)

Die goldenen Versprechungen rühriger und auf eigenen Gewinn bedachter Werbeagenten wie Stein usw., wonach ihene nicht nur die Reisekosten von Haus bis Amsterdam ersetzt würden, sondern daß auch jeder Auswanderer an Bord des Schiffes 100 Gulden bares Geld und bei der Ankunft in Amerika 6 Jauchert Ackerfeld, 2 Stück Zugvieh, 2 Stück Kuhe, 2 Schweine un was sie notwendig hätten, erhielten, hat sie bei dem weiteren Umstand, daß bei ihnen daheim ein großer Mangel an Lebensmittel und kein Verdienstsei, veranlaßt, auszuwandern. In Wirklichkeit ließen sich die Agenten die Überfahrt im voraus bezahlen, um hinterher die ahnungslosen Leutchen in der Hafenstadt Le Havre oder Amsterdam in größtem Elend sitzenzulassen, wie dies von den beiden enttäuscht zurückgekehrten Amerikafahrern Anton Kohler und Frau Theresia Hanselmännin wie auch von Georg Seiter und Frau Magdalena Hanselmännin und anderen Geprellten aus anderen Gemeinden zu Protokoll gegeben worden ist. Demzufolge verbot das badische Innenministerium Ende Mai 1817 bis auf weiteres die Auswanderung nach Amerika.

More soberly however a government decree from 4 January 1817, according to which those want, so still America, read not to sell is, until the selbige dismissal (the state of Baden, i.e. the state grant) to have. Also the Vogt is to take care and meet the necessary measures that tidy debt retirement with each emigrant happens with punishment of own responsibility.

The golden promises more active and on own profit of mindful publicity agents such as stone etc., according to which ihene the journey costs were not only replaced from house to Amsterdam, but that also each emigrant on board the ship 100 guldens cash money and with the arrival in America 6 Jauchert field field, 2 pieces course cattle, 2 pieces of Kuhe, 2 pigs un which them necessarily would have received, have them with to the further circumstance that with them at home a large lack was to food and none, arranged, to emigrate. In reality the agents the passage let themselves be paid in advance, in order to sit-permit afterwards the notionless Leutchen in the port Le Havre or Amsterdam in largest misery, how this from the two disappoints returned America drivers Anton Kohler and Mrs. Theresia Hanselmaennin as also by George Seiter and Mrs. Magdalena Hanselmaennin and other bouncing from other municipalities to minutes was given. Therefore the ministry of the Interior of Baden at the end of of May 1817 up to further forbade the emigration to America.

Ignatious Wiley

Old Houses Of The North Country, No.163. Stone houses abundantly dot the town of Cape Vincent and several of them are to be found in the Rosiere and French Settlement district. Here in the 1830's through the influence of James D. LeRay de Chaumont came a number of Roman Catholic settlers from both France and Germany to take up farms. They were sincere, hard- working people and became substantial citizens of this country. One was Joseph Wiley, a widower from Germany, who came in 1832 bringing his children with him. He erected a log house. One of his children was Ignatious, a skilled stone mason by trade and about 1847 the log cabin was replaced by the plain but attractive limestone house shown above. This house, which is just off the old Cape Vincent turnpike and not far from Rosiere, consists of ten rooms. Some yards away from the front of the house flows Kent's Creek and from the creek bed came the stone used in building the house. Not far away the town's first grist mill was built on the banks of this creek in 1809. Ernest G. Wiley a prosperous farmer and owner of the house and its 208 acres today recalls that his grandfather a giant of a man weighing 260 pounds and standing six feet four inches tall. He had not been in the town long when he was called upon build the old woolen mill in Dexter. Another example of his workmanship was the fine old Alfred Dezensgremel stone house in the Rosiere area and in 1865 when Antoine Duvillard planned the big stone grist mill on the shore of the St. Lawrence in the village of Cape Vincent Ignatious Wiley was selected to do the stone work. At the present time this building is the federal fish hatchery and has been since July, 1895, when George Grant sold it to the government, having purchased it in January of that year to make such disposition of it. Ignatious Wiley died July 2, 1886 and willed his property to his children. His son, Frank Wiley, eventually became the owner of the farm and its old stone house. He operated the farm for several years. He was born in the town of Cape Vincent October 4, 1847, about the time the house was erected and his first wife was Mary Ellens. One of their children was Ernest G. Wiley, present owner of the property. Frank Wiley died April 31, 1933, and under the provisions of his will the house and farm went to his son Ernest. In the early history of the property there was also a stone barn, which Ignatious had constructed, but this was built over by Frank Wiley about 1894 and only the lower part was retained in that construction. Ernest Wiley relates that his grandfather was the builder of the Catholic Church (St. Vincent of Paul) in the village of Cape Vincent. It was another monument to his skill.

Regarding Ottilia Wehrle giving away her children so Felix Mance would marry her, Annette Reff (Michael's daughter) remarked, "The first people my father lived with was with the Charles Docteur's family who a family of children which he helped to care for. He was finally adopted by Father Lapique, pastor of the Catholic Church in Rosiere. He never had been in school and father Lapique taught him all that he knew. He was taught German, French and was given an excellent education. In his lifetime he held many responsible positions. My mother died when she was 37 of child birth and left us for my father, and he thought only of us. A remarkable Christian and he had a great many friends was loved by everyone. He was drowned in 4th lake in the Adirondacks at the age of 65."

Published in The Delano Eagle; Dec 12, 1907-

"Another sudden death occured here last Friday morning. Frederick Kasheimer, after an illness of short duration, passed away at his home in the north part of the village at about 8;20. He got up in the morning and after doing his chores came into the house and complained of not feeling well. His wife told him to lie down, and as he seemed to be suffering with cramps she applied hot water, but that did not seem to relieve him. After a few minutes one of the members of the family went into the bed room and discovered that he had breathed his last. Dr lares was called but it was too late to any good. The coroner was summoned and an inquest held, but up to the time of going to press the cause of his death had not been determined. Frederick Kasheimer was born in Germany, June 20th 1838 and came to the country in 1866, stopping at Chicago where he lived two years. In 1868 he came to Delano where he resided for 27 years and then moved to the town of Woodland, where he remained nine years. About three years ago, he with his family moved back to Delano. Deceased has been a hardworking, honest citizen, respected by all who knew him. He leaves a widow, three sons, Rudolph, Eugene, and Vincent, and two daughters, Mrs. L.B. Bartlett of this place and Mrs. James Mayfield, of Buffalo Springs N. Dak. The funeral took place from St. Peter's church last Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and the interment of the remains was made in the Catholic cemetery."
